

Seabury Hall Winterim 2020

February 2020 two faculty members and a group of students who self-selected this service option spent 4 days at Pu‘u Mahoe.

The pressing need was the spreading of mulch within the arboretum. Comments from students and faculty were “awesome”, “amazing”, and “beautiful”. They also said how connected it made them feel to the ‘aina and to their island home.

